Dear Livestock + Seed Programs,

Please do not allow irradiated food in school lunches. It is unneccessary and not proven safe. In fact, irradiated foods may be very dangerous, especially to children.

To make food safer we need better inspections, especially of the meat industry. Irradiation is nothing but a convenient way for slaughterhouses to cover up a multitude of sins.

I eagerly await your reply.

Sincerely,
Chris Jones

Mr. Christopher J. Jones
630 Maiden Ln Apt I
Austin, TX 78705