

If seed treated with a prohibited substance is planted in organic ground, must the land complete another three-year transition before being certified as organic?

Yes. Planting treated seed is considered the same as applying the substance directly to the ground.

e-CFR