

Can I require that my calf supplier treat all calves with Ivermectin prior to shipping them to my farm to prevent the spread of insect infestations?

No. Allowed parasitocides may only be used when cultural practices to control pests fail. That is, the animal must be diagnosed with a parasite in order to require the use of the medication.

e-CFR