

Can I use OMRI -approved materials in my organic production operation without further approval by my certifying agent?

No. You must list all materials in your organic system plan and have that plan approved by your certifying agent prior to using any materials in organic production.

e-CFR