

Can a certified operation just accept an affidavit from a flavor manufacturer attesting to the flavor's compliance with 205.605(a)'s requirement that flavors be from non-synthetic sources and that they be produced without the use of synthetic solvents or carrier systems or any artificial preservative?

No. Certifiers must review a complete description of the materials, solvents and carriers used in order to allow the use of the flavor in certified organic production.

e-CFR