

If my client is suspended, is my inventory automatically reverted to conventional?

That depends. If the product was produced in compliance with the NOP regulations, it may still be eligible for sale as certified once certification is reinstated. If the suspension was issued for a reason that does not affect the technical compliance or organic integrity of the product, it may still be sold as organic once certification is reinstated.

e-CFR