

Do bulls have to be managed organically?

If bulls are to be sold, labeled, or represented as organic slaughter stock, they must be managed organically from the last third of gestation. If bulls are being used as breeder stock, they may enter the operation at any time.

e-CFR