

Can a stop-sale be issued for product that was produced in violation of the NOP regulations?

No. There is no stop-sale authority under the NOP. Once an operation has been notified in writing that their product was produced in violation of the NOP, continued sale of that product is considered a willful violation of the NOP regulations and OFPA and the seller is subject to up to $11,000 per violation.

e-CFR