

Our company manufactures 71% ethanol based hand sanitizers, the other ingredients being purified water and coconut based glycerin emollients. Some of our customers are inquiring as to our organic status. Will our customers' organic status be compromised by using our hand sanitizers, or is this something beyond the scope of the National Organic Program?

NOP does not regulate the use of hand sanitizers as long as they meet FDA requirements.

e-CFR