

Is this true? "Organic" means that at least 95% of the ingredients are organic. The other 5%, however, still may have to be non-GMO."

Yes. For certified products, on the principal display panel, the label "organic" means that 95 percent of the ingredients are organic and the remaining 5 percent must still be non-GMO.

e-CFR