

I work with an Ireland-based company that is producing liquid seaweed fertilizers. Can a product like this or fresh seaweed extracts be accredited and what are the requirements? Where should we send the application?

Crop production inputs like your liquid seaweed extract fertilizer do not need to be certified as organic. However, crop inputs such as your fertilizer do need to be reviewed for NOP compliance by USDA accredited certifying agents prior to use in organic crop production.

e-CFR