

tmp28[1].txt

From: Parker Bosley [pbosley@roadrunner.com]

Sent: Wednesday, March 25, 2009 11:34 AM

To: AGSEC -USDA

For an administration that promised change, it would be unfortunate if you allowed small dairies that do local milk bottling and thus keep money in our local economies.

Please consider small scale farming as a vital part of our food production system. The work of small locally based food producers does not threaten or curtail the industrial model that USDA continues to support.

Parker Bosley
Cleveland, Ohio