Tuesday, November 24, 2009

Unless otherwise stated, shipments, crossings or imports are for the weeks ending November 7, 14 and November 21, 2009 in that order in thousand hundred-weight (cwt - 100,000 lbs) units. Expected movement is for the period November 22-December 5, 2009. Prices are for Monday, November 23, 2009 compared with Monday, November 16, 2009. Unless otherwise stated, sales are F.O.B. Shipping Point Basis (including delivered sales F.O.B. Shipping Point Basis) or port of entry and extra services are included. Prices represent open (spot) market sales by first handlers on product of generally good quality and condition unless otherwise stated and may include promotional allowances or other incentives. No consideration is given to after-sale adjustments unless otherwise stated. Brokerage fees paid by shipper are included in the price reported. Reportable supplies of global fruit are expected to start arriving in U.S. ports within the next two weeks, including apricots, nectarines and peaches from Chile and cherries from Argentina.
