The dry whole milk price range was unchanged this week. Continued upward movement in butter markets has led processors to prioritize moving milkfat into other channels rather than drying whole milk. Many processors note their preference to dry nonfat dry milk. Minimal drying activity is reported, and inventories remain slim. Demand is quiet.

Prices for: U.S., All First Sales, F.O.B., Conventional, and Edible Dry Whole Milk

Price Range - 26% Butterfat; $/LB:	2.0000 - 2.2000
