PRICES PAID TO GROWERS

GEORGIA (via: Forest Park-Atlanta GA)

Weather for the week shows the Southern and Central parts of the state with evening and morning lows in the mid-50s and low 60s cooling down to the low 30s with daytime temps in the mid-50s to low 70s and cooling down to the low 50s. Rain is expected Thursday through Saturday and again on Monday. In the Northern areas freezing temps are expected Monday and Tuesday.

Growers are sending out all of their pecans that are not destined to be put into cold storage for sale. While prices are stabilizing, they are still a little low for growers that have export and retail gift quality pecans, and they are optimistic that will change after the New Year. Shellers and domestic buyers are busy grading and making offers along with the gift shop purchases preparing for the holiday sales. Some are still purchasing pecans from other sources. Export business is slow, but there are buyers looking to send some out overseas and negotiations are ongoing.

OKLAHOMA (via: Phoenix, Arizona) (602) 514-7210

Pecan harvesting is increasing slightly, but is still light. Deliveries by growers to buying points are extremely light. Demand was moderate for good quality pecans. Gift box and retail trade are looking out of state for supplies.

The weather forecast this week calls for high temperatures from the low 50s to the low 70s and low temperatures from the mid-20s to mid-40s. On Tuesday, November 24 there is a 30-60 percent chance of precipitation, on Saturday, November 28 there is a 20-50 percent chance of precipitation, and on Sunday, November 29 there is a 40-50 percent chance of precipitation.

Prices paid to growers (from noon Tuesday, November 17, 2020 through noon Tuesday, November 24, 2020) at buyers delivery point or F.O.B. the orchard including direct sales to end users, cents per pound, in-shell of generally good quality in lots of 20,000 pounds or less unless otherwise stated.

Natives/Seedlings (deliveries very light) yard tree lots 40-55 mostly 40-50 occasional higher and lower

THE NEXT OKLAHOMA REPORT IS SCHEDULED TO BE RELEASED ON TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1, 2020.

TEXAS (Central, South, Eastern Areas) (602) 514-7210

Deliveries by growers to delivery points of Improved varieties were very light. Demand was moderate for good quality pecans. Pawnee are currently being harvested, as well as Natives. Harvesting is expected to continue to increase during the weeks leading up to Christmas.

The weather forecast for the coming week calls for low temperatures from the low 50s to the low 70s, with high temperatures from the mid-50s to the low 80s. There is a 20-70 percent chance of precipitation on Friday, November 27, and a 60-70 percent chance of precipitation across Texas on Saturday, November 28.

The retail gift pack market is fairly active. Due to very light volumes, buyers are making purchases from other production areas or are waiting for additional availability of pecans.

Prices paid to growers (from noon Tuesday, November 17, 2020 to Tuesday, November 24, 2020) at buyers delivery points or F.O.B. the orchard including direct sales to end users, cents per pound in-shell of generally good quality in lots of 20,000 pounds or less unless otherwise stated.

Pawnee (deliveries very light) 50-54% meat yield 195-210 occasional higher and lower

Natives/Seedlings (deliveries light) yard tree lots 38-55 mostly 40-45
