GIPSA Alleges C.H. Cattle Company, LLC and Leonard Craig Hammond Violated the Packers and Stockyards Act

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8, 2014 – The U.S. Department of Agriculture’s Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) has found evidence that C.H. Cattle Company, LLC (C.H. Cattle) and Leonard Craig Hammond (Hammond), Glade Spring, Va., purchased, in commerce, approximately 364 head of livestock and failed to make full payment promptly to 5 livestock sellers in that they paid the balance due between 1 and 5 days late for livestock.

GIPSA filed a complaint against C.H. Cattle and Hammond on December 11, 2013. The complaint can be found on the GIPSA website: http://www.gipsa.usda.gov/psp/enforcement.html. If the allegations are admitted, or proven in an oral hearing, C.H. Cattle and Hammond may be ordered to cease and desist from violating the Packers and Stockyards (P&S) Act, suspended, and/or assessed a civil penalty.

C.H. Cattle was engaged in the business of a dealer buying and selling livestock in commerce for its own account and is registered with the Secretary of Agriculture.

Hammond is president, manager, and 100% shareholder of C.H. Cattle; responsible for the direction, management, and control of C.H. Cattle; operates C.H. Cattle as his alter ego; and is a dealer within the meaning of, and subject to the provisions of, the P&S Act.

The P&S Act is a fair trade practice and payment protection law that promotes fair and competitive marketing environments for the livestock, meat, and poultry industries.
GIPSA Alleges Trenton Dale Saulters, d/b/a Trent Saulters Violated the Packers and Stockyards Act

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8, 2014 – The U.S. Department of Agriculture’s Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) has found evidence that Trenton Dale Saulters (Saulters), doing business as Trent Saulters, Waco, Texas:

• engaged in the business of a dealer buying and selling livestock in commerce for his own account or for the account of others without filing and maintaining an adequate bond or bond equivalent as required by the Packers and Stockyards (P&S) Act;

• issued checks in payment for livestock purchases which were returned because Saulters did not maintain sufficient funds on deposit to cover the checks when presented; and

• purchased livestock and failed to pay, when due, the full purchase price for the livestock purchased.

GIPSA filed a complaint against Saulters on October 18, 2013. The complaint can be found on the GIPSA website: http://www.gipsa.usda.gov/psp/enforcement.html. If the allegations are admitted, or proven in an oral hearing, Saulters may be ordered to cease and desist from violating the P&S Act, suspended, and/or assessed a civil penalty.

Saulters was engaged in the business of a dealer buying and selling livestock in commerce for his own account or for the account of others and is not registered with the Secretary of Agriculture.

The P&S Act is a fair trade practice and payment protection law that promotes fair and competitive marketing environments for the livestock, meat, and poultry industries.
GIPSA Settles a Case with Noah’s Ark Processors, LLC Resulting in a $3,500 Penalty

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8, 2014 – The U.S. Department of Agriculture’s Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) enforcement rules provide a mechanism to quickly resolve violations of the Packers and Stockyards (P&S) Act. GIPSA may offer an alleged violator the option of waiving their right to a hearing and entering into a stipulation agreement to quickly resolve alleged violations.

Noah’s Ark Processors, LLC, Dawson, Minn. – waived their right to a hearing, entered into a stipulation agreement, and agreed to pay a penalty of $3,500 after GIPSA found that they failed to pay, when due, for livestock purchases.

The P&S Act is a fair trade practice and payment protection law that promotes fair and competitive marketing environments for the livestock, meat, and poultry industries.
GIPSA Alleges Hughey P. Weyandt, III, d/b/a Morrison’s Cove Livestock Auction Violated the Packers and Stockyards Act

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23, 2014 – The U.S. Department of Agriculture’s Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) has found evidence that Hughey P. Weyandt, III (Weyandt), doing business as Morrison’s Cove Livestock Auction, Claysburg, Pa.:

• failed to properly use and maintain his custodial account;

• had outstanding checks drawn on their custodial account which was due in part to their failure to deposit in the custodial account, within the time prescribed by the regulations, an amount equal to the proceeds receivable for sales of consigned livestock; and

• purchased livestock and failed to pay, when due, the full purchase price for the livestock.

GIPSA filed a complaint against Weyandt on December 12, 2013. The complaint can be found on the GIPSA website: http://www.gipsa.usda.gov/psp/enforcement.html. If the allegations are admitted, or proven in an oral hearing, Weyandt may be ordered to cease and desist from violating the Packers and Stockyards (P&S) Act, suspended, and/or assessed a civil penalty.

Weyandt was 100% owner of Hughey P. Weyandt, III, d/b/a Morrison’s Cove Livestock Auction; responsible for the day to day direction, management, and control of Hughey P. Weyandt, III, d/b/a Morrison’s Cove Livestock Auction; engaged in the business of a market agency and dealer; and is registered with the Secretary of Agriculture.

The P&S Act is a fair trade practice and payment protection law that promotes fair and competitive marketing environments for the livestock, meat, and poultry industries.
GIPSA Alleges Gene Schatz Violated the Packers and Stockyards Act

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23, 2014 – The U.S. Department of Agriculture’s Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) has found evidence that Gene Schatz, Lovell, Wyo., failed to keep and maintain accounts, records, and memoranda which fully and correctly disclosed all the transactions involved in his business subject to the Packers and Stockyards (P&S) Act, including, but not limited to, all purchase and sale invoices, load mark-up sheets, scale tickets, sales invoices and settlement sheets, and other documents of sale, purchase or commission that record a true and accurate account of his business as a dealer and/or market agency.

GIPSA filed a complaint against Gene Schatz on December 12, 2013. The complaint can be found on the GIPSA website: http://www.gipsa.usda.gov/psp/enforcement.html. If the allegations are admitted, or proven in an oral hearing, Gene Schatz may be ordered to cease and desist from violating the P&S Act.

Gene Schatz engaged in the business of a dealer, buying and selling livestock in commerce for his own account or the account of others; engaged in the business as a market agency, buying livestock in commerce on a commission basis; and is registered with the Secretary of Agriculture.

The P&S Act is a fair trade practice and payment protection law that promotes fair and competitive marketing environments for the livestock, meat, and poultry industries.
GIPSA Alleges Scott T. Good and Hughey P. Weyandt, Ill Violated the Packers and Stockyards Act

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23, 2014 – The U.S. Department of Agriculture’s Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) has found evidence that Hughey P. Weyandt, III (Weyandt), Claysburg, Pa., offered monetary payment to induce Scott T. Good (Good), Dayton, Pa., buying on commission for JBS Packerland, Inc. (JBS), to purchase at inflated prices livestock consigned to Empire Livestock by Weyandt, and on some occasions actively inflated the prices by increasing his own bid at auction, while at the same time performing as a market agency buying on commission for JBS.

Weyandt failed to keep and maintain records which fully and correctly disclosed all the transactions in his business as a market agency.

GIPSA filed a complaint against Good and Weyandt on December 11, 2013. The complaint can be found on the GIPSA website: http://www.gipsa.usda.gov/psp/enforcement.html. If the allegations are admitted, or proven in an oral hearing, Good and Weyandt may be ordered to cease and desist from violating the Packers and Stockyards (P&S) Act, suspended, and/or assessed a civil penalty.

Good was engaged in the business of a market agency buying livestock in commerce on a commission basis and is registered with the Secretary of Agriculture.
Weyandt was engaged in the business of a dealer to buy and sell livestock in commerce; as a market agency buying on commission; and is registered with the Secretary of Agriculture.

The P&S Act is a fair trade practice and payment protection law that promotes fair and competitive marketing environments for the livestock, meat, and poultry industries.
Bobby T. Tindel, d/b/a BT Tindel Cattle Co. Has Been Ordered to Cease and Desist

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23, 2014 – On January 9, 2014, the U.S. Department of Agriculture’s Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) entered into a consent decision with Bobby T. Tindel (Tindel), doing business as BT Tindel Cattle Co., Chandler, Texas.

Tindel has been ordered to cease and desist from engaging in operations subject to the Packers and Stockyards (P&S) Act without maintaining an adequate bond or bond equivalent.

Tindel acknowledges that the civil penalty of $8,000 assessed in a June 28, 2012, Order has not been paid in full, along with all applicable interest and fees.

This consent decision resolves a complaint that GIPSA filed on January 8, 2014.

The P&S Act is a fair trade practice and payment protection law that promotes fair and competitive marketing environments for the livestock, meat, and poultry industries.
Lynchburg Livestock Market, Inc., C. Matthew Fariss, and Duane D. Gilliam Have Been Assessed a $5,000 Civil Penalty

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23, 2014 – On December 19, 2013, the U.S. Department of Agriculture’s Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) entered into a consent decision with Lynchburg Livestock Market, Inc. (Lynchburg), C. Matthew Fariss (Fariss), and Duane D. Gilliam (Gilliam), Lynchburg, Va. Lynchburg, Fariss, and Gilliam have been ordered to cease and desist from:

• recording the weight of livestock at other than their true and correct weights;
• assessing and collecting purchase amounts for livestock from buyers on the basis of the false or incorrect weights;
• paying sellers of the livestock on the basis of the false or incorrect weights; and
• issuing accounts of sale to the sellers of the livestock on the basis of the false or incorrect weights.

They have also been assessed a $5,000 civil penalty.

The Packers and Stockyards Act is a fair trade practice and payment protection law that promotes fair and competitive marketing environments for the livestock, meat, and poultry industries.
Judgment entered against Billy Mike Gentry in favor of the United States of America; Ordered to pay $945,250.00

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23, 2014 – On December 30, 2013, United States District Judge Sharion Aycock granted a default judgment against Billy Mike Gentry (Gentry), a livestock dealer and market agency located in Houston, Miss.

The judgment entered against Gentry and in favor of the United States of America in the amount of $945,250.00 will bear interest until paid in full. Gentry is enjoined from operating as a dealer or market agency under the Packers and Stockyards (P&S) Act and Regulations until he increases his bond coverage to the full amount required. Gentry must also re-register with the United States Department of Agriculture as required by a 2008 Order issued by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Gentry has been in business purchasing livestock for himself as a livestock dealer and for others on a commission basis. The Secretary’s 2008 order suspended Gentry from purchasing livestock without first filing and maintaining adequate bond coverage. That administrative order became final and effective March 18, 2009. Gentry’s failure to comply with the order led to the current judgment entered by Judge Aycock.

The P&S Act is a fair trade practice and payment protection law that promotes fair and competitive marketing environments for the livestock, meat, and poultry industries.
GIPSA Settles a Case with F&F Farms and Cattle, Inc. Resulting in a $1,200 Penalty

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23, 2014 – The U.S. Department of Agriculture’s Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) enforcement rules provide a mechanism to quickly resolve violations of the Packers and Stockyards (P&S) Act. GIPSA may offer an alleged violator the option of waiving their right to a hearing and entering into a stipulation agreement to quickly resolve alleged violations.

F&F Farms and Cattle, Inc., Kite, Ga. – waived its right to a hearing, entered into a stipulation agreement, and agreed to pay a penalty of $1,200 after GIPSA found that it failed to pay, when due, for livestock purchases.

The P&S Act is a fair trade practice and payment protection law that promotes fair and competitive marketing environments for the livestock, meat, and poultry industries.
GIPSA Settles a Case with Fairview Sale Barn, Inc. Resulting in a $2,500 Penalty

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23, 2014 – The U.S. Department of Agriculture’s Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) enforcement rules provide a mechanism to quickly resolve violations of the Packers and Stockyards (P&S) Act. GIPSA may offer an alleged violator the option of waiving their right to a hearing and entering into a stipulation agreement to quickly resolve alleged violations.

Fairview Sale Barn, Inc., Fairview, Ill. – waived its right to a hearing, entered into a stipulation agreement, and agreed to pay a penalty of $2,500 after GIPSA found that it operated with shortages in its custodial account.

The P&S Act is a fair trade practice and payment protection law that promotes fair and competitive marketing environments for the livestock, meat, and poultry industries.

Garfield Griswold, d/b/a G&G Has Been Ordered to Pay A Fine for Not Filing Reports with USDA

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10, 2014 – On November 19, 2014, Garfield Griswold (Griswold), doing business as G&G was ordered to pay a civil penalty in the amount of $134,860 for not filing the required Annual Report with the Packers and Stockyards Program (P&SP) of USDA for the 2010 calendar year. The U.S. Department of Justice Federal Programs Branch represented USDA and entered a default judgment against Griswold.

On May 2, 2011, P&SP sent Griswold a Notice of Default (NOD) notifying him that he failed to file his 2010 annual report. Griswold received the NOD on May 13, 2011. However, Griswold failed to timely file his “Annual Report” for the calendar year ending December 31, 2010. The Annual Report for that calendar year was due on April 18, 2011, and to date, Griswold has not filed his required Annual Report for the 2010 calendar year.

All meat packers, live poultry dealers, market agencies and livestock dealers operating under the jurisdiction of the Packers and Stockyards Act of 1921 (P&S Act) are required by federal regulation to file reports annually. These reports provide critical information that the Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) uses to ensure farmers and ranchers are financially protected when they sell their livestock. Griswold operated as a dealer, buying and selling livestock for his own account as defined by the P&S Act, and was registered with the Secretary of Agriculture as a dealer until he was notified by a letter dated June 13, 2011, and served on June 16, 2011, that his registration had expired.

The P&S Act is a fair trade practice and payment protection law that promotes fair and competitive marketing environments for the livestock, meat, and poultry industries.

GIPSA Alleges Blue Horse Company, LLC, Shawn Breitsprecher Violated the Packers and Stockyards Act

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18, 2014 – The U.S. Department of Agriculture’s Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) has found evidence that Blue Horse Company, LLC (Blue Horse), Shawn Breitsprecher (Breitsprecher), Ossian, Iowa, failed to charge their customers for the actual weight of livestock.

GIPSA filed a complaint against Blue Horse and Breitsprecher on November 20, 2014. The complaint can be found on the GIPSA website: www.gipsa.usda.gov/psp/enforcement.html. If the allegations are admitted, or proven in an oral hearing, Blue Horse and Breitsprecher may be ordered to cease and desist from violating the Packers and Stockyards (P&S) Act and/or assessed a civil penalty.

GIPSA has found that Blue Horse is unfit to be a dealer and recommends that its application for registration be denied.

Blue Horse, under the management of Breitsprecher, was engaged in the business of a livestock dealer buying and selling livestock in commerce for its own account and is not registered with the Secretary of Agriculture.

Breitsprecher was manager of Blue Horse; responsible for the management and day-to-day operations of Blue Horse; engaged in the business of managing and operating Blue Horse; and engaged in the business of a dealer buying and selling livestock in commerce.
