“Every customer and every employee must be treated fairly and equitably and with dignity and respect.”

EEO is the law.  EEO is for everyone.

DISCRIMINATION IN EMPLOYMENT IS ILLEGAL!

If you believe you have been discriminated against because of your race, color, national origin, gender (including sexual harassment), religion, age (if over 40), disability, marital or family status, sexual orientation, political beliefs, parental status, protected genetic information, or reprisal for equal employment activities, in an employment matter or in the workplace, and wish to initiate an EEO complaint, you must contact your EEO Counselor within 45 days of the alleged discriminatory action.

Employees and applicants for employment are to contact:

Persons with disabilities who would like this information in an alternative format may contact their state relay provider or contact the above offices.
