

USDA Export Verification (EV) Program Specified Product Requirements for Bovine – Ecuador

1 Purpose

This document provides the specified product requirements for marketing U.S. beef and beef products to Ecuador under the USDA Export Verification (EV) Program.

2 Scope

These requirements apply to U.S. suppliers (slaughterers, fabricators, and processors) of beef and beef products that are eligible for export to Ecuador as listed on the FSIS Export website. Companies must meet the specified product requirements for Ecuador under the EV Program through an approved USDA QSA Program. The requirements for the QSA Program are defined in GVD 1002 Procedure, Quality System Assessment (QSA) Program. The QSA Program ensures that the specified product requirements are supported by a documented quality management system.

Only companies with an approved USDA QSA Program for the EV Program for Ecuador may label and sell product as meeting the specified product requirements for Ecuador under the EV Program.

4 Specified Product Requirements

Bovine meat and meat products must meet the following requirement.

- 4.1 Eligible beef and beef products, as listed on the FSIS website, must be derived from animals that are born and raised in the U.S.; or legally imported from Mexico; or legally imported from Canada and resided in the U.S. for at least 60 days prior to slaughter.

5 Shipping Documentation

- 5.1 Identification of conforming product during shipment and delivery must be documented on the shipping documentation (bills of lading, shipping manifests, or letters of guarantee). The shipping documentation must:

- 5.1.1 Clearly identify the product and product quantity; and

- 5.1.2 Contain one of the following applicable statements:

- 5.1.2.1 "Product meets EV Program Requirements for Ecuador" - This statement is used for finished items that are eligible for export.

"The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, and where applicable sex, marital status, familial status, parental status, religion, sexual orientation, genetic information, political beliefs, reprisal, or because all or part of an individual's income is derived from any public assistance program (not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) should contact USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TDD). To file a complaint of discrimination, write USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20250-9410, or call (800) 795-3272 (voice) or (202) 720-6382 (TDD). USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employer." (Updated July 18, 2005)

- 5.1.2.2 "Product meets EV Program Requirements for Ecuador excluding final fabrication requirements" - This statement is used for items that must be further fabricated to meet all requirements prior to being eligible for export.
