

§ 959.84

Termination.

* * * * *

(d) The Secretary shall conduct a referendum within six years after the effective date of this paragraph and every sixth year thereafter to ascertain whether continuance is favored by producers. The Secretary would consider termination of this part if continuance is not favored by more than fifty percent of growers voting in the referendum or growers of more than fifty percent of the volume of onions represented thereby, who, during a representative period determined by the Secretary, have been engaged in the production for market of onions in the production area.

* * * * *