In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity, in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). Remedies and complaint filing deadlines vary by program or incident.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.) should contact the responsible Agency or USDA’s TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program discrimination complaint, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, AD-3027, found online at How to File a Program Discrimination Complaint and at any USDA office or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by: (1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410; (2) fax: (202) 690-7442; or (3) email: program.intake@usda.gov.

1. PURPOSE

This notice announces that the Agricultural Marketing Service (AMS), Federal Grain Inspection Service (FGIS) is revising the format of official inspection certificates. Until all affected handbooks and directives can be revised, this notice serves to document the format changes.

2. BACKGROUND

AMS is modernizing its grain inspection and weighing business information systems to better meet the needs of its customers. Coming online throughout 2007 will be a new Certificate (CRT) application that automates the certification process and feeds data to the Inspection Data Warehouse (IDW), a comprehensive, national database of inspection and weighing information.

The Grain, Weighing, Bean, Rice, Pea, and Lentil Inspection Handbooks and program directives define the requirements and format for official inspection and weight certificates. Certificates issued by the Federal Grain Inspection Service (FGIS) and other official service providers all follow the same requirements.

3. CERTIFICATE FORMAT CHANGES

In July 2007 AMS published Directive FGIS 9290.16, Inspection Data Warehouse (IDW) for Grain Program Services, which specifies inspection and weighing record requirements for the IDW. Official service providers are required to electronically collect and transmit to IDW summary records for inspection and weighing services, excluding Class Y weights and Official Commercial Inspection Service (OCIS), beginning January 2008. Concurrent with this action, AMS is amending certificate formats. The CRT application is available to all official service providers. Official service providers using other certificate software may choose to adopt the new format before January 2008. Those official service providers who wish to use the new CRT application should email FGISonlineSupport@ams.usda.gov.

The following changes have been made to official inspection certificates:

- a. Print all certificates on white 8-½ by 11-inch paper. The new certificates will identify the color of the certificate in the certificate header instead of using different color paper and will clearly display any qualifying statements. Attachment 1 shows an example and Attachment 2 identifies certificate types and qualifying features.
- b. Show all analytical results in the “Results” section of the certificate. Some results such as protein, odor, mycotoxin, and Starlink were formerly shown in remarks but will now be shown in the “Results” section, along with all other analytical results.
- c. Show additional information and statements in the “Remarks” section of the certificate.

- d. All certificates will include a re-sized USDA insignia in the top left corner that is exactly 20 millimeter (mm) or 13/16-inch wide. On non-export certificates, service providers may use company seals or logos. A re-sized FGIS logo that is 63 mm or 2-½ inches wide will be placed exactly in the center of the page. The font color of the logo shall be hexadecimal gray code #CBCBCB.

All official service provider certificates will follow FGIS formats for font size and type, bolding, italics, etc. (see Attachment 3). Section and field labels must also follow the same order and arrangement. Official service providers should not use FGIS form identifiers, the OMB approval number, or the Paperwork Reduction Act statement unless the formats are IDENTICAL. Attachment 4 shows required statements by type of certificate.

AMS must approve all agency-created certificates. Please submit specimen copies to FGISonlineSupport@ams.usda.gov for approval. AMS has displayed all certificates types for viewing on the AMS website at www.ams.usda.gov.

4. ACTIONS

Retain this notice until all handbooks and program directives have been updated to reflect the format changes.

5. QUESTIONS

Direct any questions concerning this notice to FGISonlineSupport@ams.usda.gov.
