

Agricultural Marketing Service

Producing Hemp under the 2018 Farm Bill (U.S. Domestic Hemp Production Program)	Producing Hemp under the 2014 Farm Bill (Industrial Hemp Research Only)
Requires participating State/Tribal Nations to submit a production plan to USDA for approval that meets the requirements outlined in the Interim Final Rule published October 31, 2019.	Does not require participating State/Tribal Nations to submit a production plan to USDA for approval however, all participating producers must adhere to State requirements.
States and Tribes with approved plans can produce hemp.	States and institutions of higher education are permitted to produce hemp as part of a pilot program for research until October 31, 2020.
The plant Cannabis sativa L. and any part of such plant, whether growing or not, with a delta-9 tetrahydrocannabinol concentration of not more than 0.3 percent on a dry weight basis.	The plant Cannabis sativa L. and any part of such plant, whether growing or not, with a delta-9 tetrahydrocannabinol concentration of not more than 0.3 percent on a dry weight basis.
Producers are required to register their production area with FSA.	Producers are generally required to register their production area with the State department of agriculture.
Sampling procedures must ensure that a representative sample is collected and delivered to a DEA-registered lab for testing within 15 days prior to the anticipated harvest.	There are different sampling procedures or requirements in each State. Testing does not require the use of DEA-registered labs.
Hemp produced is subject to testing requirements for Total THC.	Sampling or testing procedures vary by State.
Non-compliant material must be disposed of using DEA and CSA procedures.	Requirements related to timing of harvest, testing or disposition of non-compliant material vary by State.
Producers cannot move any product into commerce before receiving a passing test result.	Producers can only grow hemp for research purposes and there are different requirements for products entering commerce depending on the State.
Requires information sharing with law enforcement.	There are varying requirements to share information with law enforcement.
Financing available through Farm Credit System Banking Institutions	Financing may not be available through Farm Credit System Banking Institutions