

Agricultural Marketing Service

Business Process Re-engineering (BPR)

Casey Wong-Buehler
Team Lead – F&V Contracting

Agricultural Marketing Service

Who?

- Agencies Involved:
 - Domestic: AMS, FNS, FSA
 - International: FAS, USAID
- Stakeholders include:
 - Recipients: SDAs, ITOs, Disaster, Food Bank, Foreign Government, Private Voluntary Org
 - Suppliers: Manufacturers, Distributors
 - Transportation: Freight, Stevedores, Carriers

USDA Foods USDA Foods USDA Foods

Agricultural Marketing Service

What?

- ✓ Establish processes and policy that provides value to agriculture and food industries
- ✓ Establish processes and policy that provides value to the nutrition/feeding programs
- ✓ Identify the USDA materials and programs that are most beneficial to customers and industry stakeholders
- ✓ Effectively prioritize identified changes to maximize use of limited resources.

✗

An upgrade to WBSCM

USDA Foods USDA Foods USDA Foods

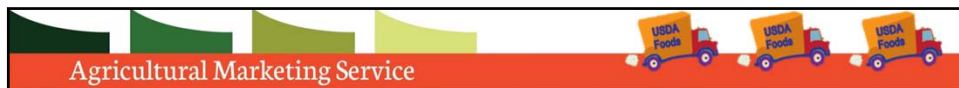

Agricultural Marketing Service

When?

Timing	S	2015 Q4				2016 Q1			2016 Q2			2016 Q3			2016 Q4			2017 Q1
	9	10	11	12	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	1	2	3
Work Streams
Domestic
	Prep		Validate Vision			Current State (AS-IS) *			Future State (To-Be) *			Business Case *			Implementation Plan *
	Governance & Quality Assurance
	Organization Change Management

* Quick Win opportunities will be discussed as identified throughout the program lifecycle

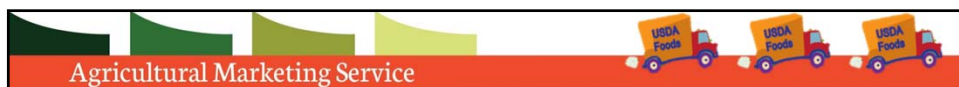

Agricultural Marketing Service

Why?

- FD 2000
- Pace and structure of business
- Gain efficiency

A colorful illustration of a farm scene featuring a white barn, a red tractor, a blue house, and a green field with a white building in the background.

Agricultural Marketing Service

How?

Casey.Wong-Buehler@ams.usda.gov

202-720-7106

or

CP-BPRinfo@ams.usda.gov

A colorful illustration of a farm scene featuring a white barn, a red tractor, a blue house, and a green field with a white building in the background.